13 Fynd Street, GOODE BEACH, WA 6330

Magical Goode Beach - Unique Views to Town AND Ocean on Offer

860.00 square metres,

Goode Beach offers one of the most picturesque and pristine locations in the Great Southern, only a 20 minute drive from Albany. If you value beachside living and spectacular natural beauty, and being away from it all but within easy reach of everything you need, Goode Beach presents a wonderful opportunity either for a permanent life, or to have a private hideaway for those special occasions.

So why buy this block instead of something else?

- Incredible ocean views! Whale watch from your bed….

- Elevated position but still very close to the beach - an easy walk

- No power lines in your view - compare with other lots available!

- Good size at 860sqm, with 20.7m frontage

- Topography means homes behind will not overlook you too much

What is on offer in the area?

Goode Beach is one of the most beautiful beaches in an area renowned for beautiful beaches! With sand that squeaks, magical turquoise waters, and very few people, this is a private haven. Located on the Torndirrup peninsula, there are many other attractions on offer including The Gap, The Natural Bridge, Salmon Holes, a range of spectacular walks, secluded beaches and bays, fishing, horse riding trails….. the list goes on. If you love making the most of the outdoors then you will be in heaven here. There is also a boat ramp very close by and a general store with fuel within approximately ten minutes drive; just about everything you could need is on hand.

If you would like more information on this property please contact Blair on 0459 024 026. If you want to inspect on your own, be sure to walk to the top of the block to check out the inspirational view.
