

17 BEITZ STREET, ROMA, QLD 4455

An interesting home!

This home has an interesting floor plan which gives 2 separate living areas, a very private court yard area and a very convenient bathroom layout. Check out the floor plan. Not to scale but just an indication of the layout.

On entry there is a dining/ living area then through the bright and airy kitchen to the dining, lounge area. Both the kitchen and living area have great access to the courtyard with large sliding doors perfect for entertaining.

Air-conditioning throughout with individual units for each room.

There are 3 bedrooms all with builtin cupboards, the laundry is adjacent to the kitchen for convenience and there is a 'Bath' room with a bath and vanity, a separate shower room and the toilet in-between. A unique setup but great for a busy family's bedtime routine.

Outside is a private garden and yard that is well fenced for the pets and children and plenty of garden shed room for tools and toys, both garden sheds are on a large concrete slab.
