

21 Mulqueeny Street, WODONGA, VIC 3690

Central Opportunity

Situated a stone's throw from the bustling City Center lies this charming family home filled with natural light and character.

Enjoying an open and inviting floorplan, the original home was designed with an emphasis on comfort and space, while benefiting from renovations over time.

Stunning floorboards run throughout the property, including the three bedrooms all of which share access to the family bathroom.

With a split system, you are sure to be comfortable year round.

The large family area situated at the front of the home flows naturally through to the bright dining and kitchen area.

The kitchen features plenty of cupboard and bench space.

Outside, the rear yard is secure and provides rear access from the street, plus a garden shed and carport.
