

14 Keirnan Street, REDLAND BAY, QLD 4165

Grand Family Living with Room for Everyone & Everything

THE PROPERTY

Positioned in a convenient pocket of Redland Bay, this large two-storey brick home delivers the space, comfort and versatility that modern families are searching for. With four bedrooms, multiple living areas, a stunning wraparound balcony, ducted air conditioning and solar power, this beautifully presented residence offers relaxed bayside living with room for everyone. Designed for both entertaining and everyday family life, this is a home that truly grows with you.

THE HOME

Upstairs, a generous open-plan living, dining and kitchen zone forms the heart of the home. This light-filled space flows seamlessly onto the huge wraparound balcony - creating an exceptional indoor-outdoor connection and the perfect setting for weekend entertaining or quiet evenings overlooking the neighbourhood.

The recently renovated kitchen sits proudly at the centre, modern and functional, positioned to overlook the main living space while connecting directly to the balcony - ideal for families who love to gather.
