Framed by lush, tropical landscaping, this attractive family home expands over a single level to provide all you could want from your first home or an investment property.

Set on a quiet, tree-lined street, the home feels immediately inviting as it welcomes you into its light-filled flow-through living space, accented by neutral décor, white tiles and new roller blinds.

Made up of a generous separate lounge room to the front of the home and then a separate open plan family/dining room to the rear. The family/dining space centres around a modern kitchen, complete with breakfast bar, pantry and electric cooking. Opening out at two sides, the family/dining room extends out effortlessly onto a rear verandah, which not only offers perfectly private outdoor entertaining, it also provides plenty of space for kids and pets to play.

Back inside, each of the three robed bedrooms is generous in size, serviced by a private ensuite to the master bedroom and family friendly three-way bathroom.

Completing the property is a handy garden shed, a tandem carport and internal laundry with easy access to rear yard. Also, for energy efficiency Solar HWS and 6.5kW Solar panel system.

Don't miss out on this excellent opportunity. Add this property to your shortlist and arrange your inspection today!
