Corner Block in Quiet, Family-Friendly Estate

714.00 square metres,

Situated in the peaceful Argyll Heights Estate, this generous 714sqm corner block offers a great opportunity to build in a quiet, well-established neighborhood.

With dual street frontage, the block allows for flexible access and design options, perfect for those wanting room for a shed, extra parking, or separate driveways. The gentle slope also provides a chance to take advantage of elevation in your build.

Essential services including power, water, and deep sewer are all available, and with no building time limits, you can take your time to design a home that suits your needs.

Enjoy a leafy bushland outlook across the road, adding to the sense of space and privacy. Just five minutes from Albany's CBD and close to local schools and shops, this block offers both convenience and a relaxed lifestyle.

A great option for families, first-home builders or those looking to secure land in a quiet,
