Peaceful Country Lifestyle

Looking for a rural lifestyle change near the coast? Look no further than this charming 1880s home.

Four generous sized bedrooms with high ceilings, a large open plan living area and a peaceful rural outlook across farmland, Robbins Passage and as far as Treefoil Island in the far North West.

Set on an acre there is a paddock to run a cow or some sheep, a hothouse for veggies and plenty of space to run some chooks.

Only minutes from the Montagu Boat Ramp for the keen fisherman, or an easy 16-kilometre commute from Smithton.
