This well-farmed and carefully maintained property has a strong history of production, with pastures manipulated and ready for the upcoming 2026 season.

The lease is offered as a 2-year tenancy, with the option to extend for an additional 3 years for the right tenant. Whether you're looking to expand your existing operations or secure a foothold in one of WA's prime agricultural regions, this is a rare chance to access large-scale, high-quality cropping land in a proven area.
