

6 Baker Street, HERMIT PARK, QLD 4812

Character-Filled & Close to Everything

Overflowing with warmth and character, this beautifully presented cottage-style home blends timeless charm with tasteful modern updates.

Set in one of Hermit Park's most convenient pockets, this cute and welcoming property offers effortless living with all the personality you'd expect from a classic Queenslander-style cottage.

Inside, the home retains its polished timber floors, high ceilings, and inviting cottage feel, while the recent upgrades bring a fresh modern touch. The modern kitchen is updated yet sympathetic to the home's character, featuring contemporary finishes, great storage, and a layout that makes cooking and entertaining a pleasure.

The bathroom continues the theme -clean, practical, and continues the warmth of the original home.

The layout includes three bedrooms, each airy and full of natural light, and well-connected living and dining spaces that blend old-world charm with modern comfort.
