

2A Osnaburg Road, YORK, WA 6302

First Time Offered

This superior brick and iron residence is situated on 1.6 acres and located on the outskirts of town and will suit the discerning buyer.

Offering four large bedrooms (main with ensuite), second and third with semi ensuite, this craftsman built home with ducted reverse cycle air-conditioning boasts high vaulted ceilings in the living areas and polished Marri hardwood floors throughout, complimented with quality window treatments in all rooms.

Spacious kitchen with quality appointments and a large laundry and mudroom with lots of storage is a bonus.

A mammoth verandah on the northern face looking over the fully reticulated easy-care gardens provides ample BBQ and outdoor entertaining and glimpses of Mount Bakewell in all weather.

This understated property is connected to mains power, plus 6.5 KVA solar panels and solar HWS and is served by scheme water and its own bore which is connected to the fully automatic reticulation system.

Not to be missed, this special masterpiece can be inspected by appointment only.
