

12766 Kidman Way, HILLSTON, NSW 2675

Highly Regarded Horticulture Operation

1,075.00 hectares, 2,656.32 acres

Elders Rural is pleased to bring to the market "Hillston Farm" on behalf of the wider Red Gem Business.

The Red Gem story begins in Victoria's beautiful Dandenong Ranges in the township of Gembrook. Starting as a pack house in the 1950's along with a trusted brand name of Red Gem Potatoes derived from meaning of 'Red Soil Potatoes from Gembrook' today some 70 years later they are much more than that.

Through its continuation of wanting to be at the forefront of the industry, via produce and innovation, it has resulted in the implementation of the marketing of the asset in Hillston to accommodate further growth and expansion.

The farm in Hillston is being offered with the option to have a supply contract in place, which underpins the assets value but also allowing for further development of the farm to the incoming purchaser. If this is not realised, then the owners will reluctantly consider other options.
