Architecturally Designed Commercial Gem on the Avon River

Positioned in the very heart of town and set along the picturesque banks of the Avon River, this unique, custom-designed commercial property presents a rare opportunity for investors and owner-operators alike.

Formerly a Wine Bar, now utilised as the administration office for ELS Mechanical, the building was designed by renowned Northam architect, the late Brian Klopper.

The rustic brick construction is complemented by striking curved, vaulted ceilings that create an inviting and memorable interior.

A covered alfresco area opens out towards the riverside, providing an ideal setting to enjoy warm evenings and tranquil views.

The property enjoys excellent exposure to foot traffic while retaining an intimate and exclusive atmosphere-perfect for a range of commercial uses.
