

817 McCartney Road, GEORGINA, WA 6532

Charming Circa-1900 Heritage Cottage

Steeped in history and rich with character, this beautifully preserved circa-1900 stone cottage offers a rare opportunity to secure a slice of Mid-West heritage on a generous 1,508m² block.

Located at 817 McCartney Road, Georgina, just 5km from Walkaway where there is a lovely school, shop, post office, Fuel, awesome pub, and Museum plus a thriving rural community all approximately 25km from Geraldton, the property perfectly balances peaceful rural living with easy access to town conveniences.

The home is a solid three-bedroom, one-bathroom residence showcasing timeless stone construction, high ceilings and classic features that reflect its early-1900s origins. Thoughtfully partly refurbished, the cottage blends original charm with modern comfort, making it ideal for those seeking character without compromise.

Adding to its appeal, the property is equipped with solar panels, helping to reduce running costs while embracing a more sustainable lifestyle. The expansive block offers ample space for gardens, outdoor living, or future enhancements (subject to approvals), all set within a quiet country setting.
