

41d Victoria Street, ROBE, SA 5276

The famous Robetown Chocolate Company is now on the market.

A much-loved local favourite, offering a quality product and a proven, quality business opportunity.

Highly recommend quality product and iconic business in the well know coastal township of Robe SA. High tourism numbers visit Robe annually and most tourists either walk past or drive this landmark business front door.

Being offered to the market as walk in walk out sale process with the support and training available. All equipment is near new and purchased with the mindset of growth and ability to manufacture more product as the business constantly grows.

Quirky names of chocolates variety's that adapt so well for local environment and great gift ideas or token of appreciation.

This business has real legs to grow so much further under the right new management and energy. Lease on the building can be extended if required by landlord.
