Secure land in tightly held holiday destination

825.00 square metres,

Here's a great opportunity to secure land in the fast-growing holiday destination of Port Neill on the east coast of the Eyre Peninsula.

Port Neill has well and truly been discovered, and real estate is tightly held.

This vacant building allotment in town is ready to build upon and provides an ocean view.

It features a shed with concrete floor, mains water and power is available.

Everything in town is walking distance.... The pub does a brilliant meal and provides an unreal watering hole after a hard day's work. The town jetty produces a catch for dinner, and the general store has great coffee, meat, fruit & veg and all your fishing tackle and general hardware.
