RENOVATE OR DETONATE

This once family home has been left derelict for a number of years as a result it would suit the extreme handy person or tradesman. It may be able to be saved, otherwise it is literally in the detonate category. Positive attributes are you would own a large corner block with a massive 3 bay powered shed in a quiet country location. The home itself has 4 bedrooms a large lounge room, tile fire and brick construction. A project like this is not for the faint hearted - so if you are ready to roll up your sleeve's and get stuck into a project of a lifetime call Exclusive Selling Agent Suzie Perrin on 0438 545 265.
