

TARA QLD 4421

30.17 Acres just waiting for new owners

12.21 hectares, 30.17 acres

Fire destroyed the main residence in 2023 but left a snazzy zincalume shed with concrete floor big enough to make you into a weekend recluse upgrading this to make it your own. It has access to electricity although the fire took out the wires and meter box, it has 2 large rainwater tanks and 2 dams, 1 large, 1 smaller. The property comes as is, with some hard work having to remove the burnt out homestead but its priced low in this market to counteract the work still needed. Book an inspection while this is still on the books
