Pinkerton's Butchery – A Local Legacy Ready for Its Next Generation!

The iconic Pinkerton's Butchery of Kingston SE is being offered to the market after 140 years of operation, presenting a rare opportunity to acquire a long-established and highly regarded family business together with the freehold premises.

Operating successfully for generations, Pinkerton's Butchery has become a cornerstone of the Kingston SE community, earning a loyal customer base through quality products, exceptional service, and strong local relationships. The business enjoys ongoing support from local families, sporting clubs, pubs, community organizations, and visitors to the region.

Offered for sale due solely to the current owner's retirement, this thriving operation presents an outstanding opportunity for an owner-operator, first-time business purchaser, or an existing butcher looking to expand their footprint into a well-serviced regional market.

A key advantage of the business is its strong market position. Pinkerton's Butcher is the only butcher servicing Kingston SE and the surrounding district, with no competing butcher located within approximately 95 km and the next nearest operation over 120 km away.
