GLEN MIA FAMILY HOME

This modern family home is in a great location the design takes full advantage of the northerly aspect to ensure wonderful sunny living areas.

The modern floor plan is perfect for families. The living spaces are made up of a large open planned living/dining and kitchen space and a separate media room.

The master bedroom is well positioned for morning sun; but protected from the harsher afternoon sun. The three minor bedrooms have BIRs.

You'll be surprised at how usable the back yard is, the steep front of the home doesn't carry through to the back and the basis of some good landscaping is in place and ready for you to put your own mark on it.

The double garage can be used just for vehicles at this property as there is a garden shed for you all your tools.
