WHERE THE RIVERS, MOUNTAINS & RAINFORESTS MEET Lifestyle & Business Opportunity

61.04 hectares, 150.83 acres

Nestled beneath the rugged slopes, exposed bedrock and a towering presence of the majestic Black Bluff Mountain Range, this property stands out as one of the region's most remarkable offerings. Its towering presence and natural beauty creates a striking backdrop, making the location of this property truly exceptional.

Spanning approximately 61.04 hectares (approx. 150 acres) the property is an expanse of untouched wilderness with approximately 50 hectares as a Perpetual Conservation Covenant in order to preserve rare species of timber including Celery Top Pine, Myrtle, Blackwood, White Gum, Eucalyptus, Wattle and Sassafras.

The property enjoys approximately 800 metres of Leven River frontage providing both scenic views and access to water. The riverfront enhances the appeal of the land offering opportunities for recreation and relaxation.

As a common starting point for several renowned hikes, the property grants access to tracks such as Leven Canyon, Winterbrook Falls and Black Bluff. With the Penguin/Cradle trail passing directly through the property, this is an ideal base for adventure and exploration in the region with the added feature of fishing & kayaking at the door step and exploration of the property's own caves.
