Country Lifestyle in Town

A unique position within the township of Laidley yet surrounded by farmland & offering beautiful rural views, you can have country living within a stroll to town. A welcoming entry with double doors, brings you into the dining area, through to the large lounge which is air conditioned. This well-proportioned home sprawls across the 3035m² block. Featuring 3 huge sized bedrooms all with air conditioning. A recently renovated bathroom on the living level plus a 2nd bathroom under the back patio. There is a neat kitchen at the rear of the home with generous storage space. The home has a really nice feel, the tenants are on a lease until August & would stay if you are looking to invest. A great family starter, invest or make it a place to enjoy in your retirement.
