Escape to the Country – Just under 16 Acres - Minutes from Laidley

6.39 hectares, 15.79 acres

Tucked away in a private pocket of Laidley, this unique bush block offers just under 16 acres of peaceful country living. The elevated house site has already been cleared, providing a private and scenic location to build your dream home, with power available.

Located next to the potential house site are the remaining elements of an old steel shed, including a substantial 16m x 14m concrete slab, which could potentially be reused for the construction of a new shed. There is also a poly rainwater tank already on the property.

The block itself is mostly timbered, with several cleared pockets and a large dam with excellent catchment, adding to the property's natural appeal.

Whether you are looking for a vacant block to build your dream home, a peaceful weekend getaway, or simply space to enjoy country living, this property is well worth your inspection. Conveniently located just 5 minutes from the Laidley CBD and local schools, approximately 10 minutes from the growing Plainland precinct, and around 1
