

3 Taska Avenue, LAIDLEY, QLD 4341

Tranquility at Taska Ave

Nestled away in a private and peaceful street, this desirable family home combines spacious living with opportunities to take in the rural outlooks.

Designed over two levels, this unique residence welcomes you with a light-filled air-conditioned lounge featuring soaring ceilings that enhance the sense of space and openness. The downstairs master suite provides a private parent retreat, complete with air conditioning, walk-in robe and ensuite.

At the heart of the home is the generously sized kitchen, perfectly designed for family living and entertaining. With ample bench space and storage, it offers plenty of room to prepare meals while remaining connected to the adjoining dining area and relaxed sitting room. A conveniently located study provides the ideal space for working from home, assisting with school homework or a comfortable 5th bedroom. The laundry has an abundance of storage, there is a 3rd toilet easily accessed via the mudroom, very handy for the visitors.

Upstairs is dedicated to the younger members of the family, featuring generously proportioned bedrooms (one with air-conditioning). While the family bathroom services this level with ease, it also has an attractive spa bath.

Step outside to the expansive covered entertaining area, where you can relax and enjoy views over the sparkling inground pool – the perfect setting for hosting family
