ACREAGE LIVING WITH POOL, SHED & FAMILY SPACE

Set on just over an acre in the tightly held Forest Hills estate, this is the kind of property families move to Moore Creek for. Room for the kids to roam, space for the caravan and boat, and a home designed around entertaining and everyday comfort.

A quality-built home, 26 Daintree Circuit, delivers the balance buyers struggle to find, lifestyle acreage without sacrificing convenience. You're only minutes from Tamworth while enjoying the privacy, quiet and open space that makes Moore Creek so sought-after.

The heart of the home is the open-plan kitchen, dining and living zone that flows straight out to the undercover entertaining area and mineral pool. It's easy to picture summer afternoons with friends around the BBQ while the kids swim within view of the entertaining area.

Inside, the layout is practical for growing families with four well-sized bedrooms, multiple living spaces and year-round comfort through evaporative cooling, gas heating points and solar power to help keep running costs down.
