Opportunities to grow the business:

The milk bar and cafe is currently operated with 100% employees as the owners operate other business which occupy all their time. This sale is a great opportunity for a new owner to grow the business and enjoy the great lifestyle the region offers.

Opportunities for growth include:

Daytime trading hours could be extended.

The community desires for the Friday evening pizza and burger restaurant to trade additional nights. Other evening menu options would go well.

Online ordering.

Alternative ordering of stock rather than more expensive wholesale deliveries.

Cook more menu product rather than precooked from wholesaler.

A delivery service would also be successful.

Stroud is growing with many residential developments visibly underway.

In November 2026, Stroud celebrates its bicentennial with increased tourist traffic and exposure assured.

Stroud is home to picturesque historic buildings nestled in a peaceful valley less than an hour from Newcastle. The town has many visiting tourists with high demand on local accommodation.

Stroud hosts various annual community events
