Tranquil Rural escape close to Town

An impressive fenced 2240 square metre block was the site of the original homestead "Homeville House" built in Mid 1890's.

In 2013 construction of an architecturally designed western wing was completed which blended the original floorplan with an improved, functional living space.

The property represents an exceptional opportunity for buyers seeking space and tranquillity in a rural setting. It offers a low maintenance lifestyle with adequate space to appreciate 360 degrees views due to its sitting on a ridge.

Simply a unique property offering privacy and a true sense of escape, only 15 minutes' drive to Dungog.
