Supply River Mill Vineyard

The Supply River Mill Vineyard offers a rare opportunity to embrace a lifestyle in stunning natural beauty. Set in the scenic heart of Deviot, the property enjoys a commanding position above the Tamar River. The panoramic views, combined with the lush greenery, create an idyllic atmosphere that feels far removed from the bustle of everyday life. All this, while only being a short drive to Legana and Launceston.

This remarkable property has been the home of the Supply River Mill Vineyard since 2004, where its 20-year-old Pinot Noir vines have consistently produced award-winning vintages, with a loyal distribution. The vineyard's gentle terroir provides the perfect setting for further viticultural pursuits, while its location offers the possibility of a tranquil, slower-paced lifestyle.

Currently, the property features a one-bedroom residence, along with a classic pickers' shed that has been cleverly repurposed as office space, temperature controlled and wine storage and a second bedroom. Whether you envision continuing the vineyard's legacy of producing fine wine, or seek a fresh start with alternative uses, the possibilities are endless.

With its magnificent location and exceptional potential, this property represents a unique opportunity to step into a lifestyle that balances the beauty of nature with the opportunity for productivity and personal fulfillment. A rare and exciting opportunity awaits the discerning buyer.
