Off market opportunity - Middleton

Situated in the heart of Middleton's tranquil bushland, this charming weatherboard cottage offers a rare opportunity to create your dream retreat just 50 minutes from Hobart.

With bushland setting, glimpses of the D'Entrecasteaux Channel and a generous 6.8 hectare block, the lifestyle here is all about space, serenity, and potential.

The original three-bedroom, one-bathroom home is ready for a renovation. Whether looking to restore its character or reimagine a modern country escape with a new build, the foundations and space are here to build something special.

A large shed provides excellent storage or workshop space, and the expansive block offers endless possibilities from native gardens to hobby farming or simply enjoying the privacy of your own bushland sanctuary.

Set in one of Southern Tasmania's most picturesque pockets, Middleton is known for its peaceful lifestyle, proximity to the water, and easy access to boating, fishing, and coastal walks.

This is a rare chance to secure acreage with views and potential in the sought-after Channel area.
