

368 Normanby Street, WARRAGUL, VIC 3820

Bright, large family home with three living spaces

Beautifully designed and well maintained, this inviting family residence is set in the highly sought-after Warragul North area. Positioned on a large block and appealing from every perspective, the home comprises three bedrooms and two bathrooms, including a master suite complete with walk-in robe and private ensuite. Two spacious, light-filled living zones provide plenty of room for the whole family to relax and unwind.

The north-facing kitchen, meals, and family area flows seamlessly out to an alfresco deck that overlooks the expansive backyard with established trees - an ideal setting to soak up the morning sun.

Downstairs, you'll discover a second outdoor entertaining space along with a third living area, currently configured as a home theatre. This versatile space could easily be transformed into a workshop or additional storage area to suit your needs.

Featuring stainless steel appliances, a central island bench, split system air conditioner, ducted heating, and a charming solid wood fireplace, the home delivers both comfort and functionality for modern family living. Conveniently located close to reputable schools, the Warragul CBD, and public transport, this impressive property is a must-see.
