

209 Davey Street, HOBART, TAS 7000

Architectural character with high profile street frontage

Elders Commercial presents a rare opportunity to lease a well-maintained former church at 209 Davey Street, Hobart. Offering 380 sqm* of lettable space, this property is rich in heritage character and architectural charm.

The main hall features 190 sqm of open layout with impressive cathedral ceilings, captivating stained glass windows, and a raised stage ideal for events, performances, or creative use. A second room includes an additional stage, kitchen, and storage facilities, providing flexibility for a wide range of uses.

Positioned on a high-profile site with excellent signage potential, this property benefits from strong visibility and easy access in a central Hobart location.

This property suits community groups, dance studios, arts organisations, wellness operators, or businesses seeking a distinctive space with historical appeal.
